

MASLAURIS
LUBERON

Les Terres de MasLauris Rosé 2017 AOP Luberon - Organic Wine

Grape varieties: 50% Cinsault, 40% Grenache, 10 % Mourvèdre
Soil: Sandy loam and gravel

Climate: Land parcels situated at 300 meters altitude at the foot of the Luberon mountains. The microclimate allows the MasLauris grapevines to benefit from cool nights as well as beautiful, sunny days. The presence of the Mistral wind plays a key role in the irreproachable healthy state of our grapes. These different factors will provide grapes that will bring subtlety and freshness to the wine.

Grapevines: Young vines from certified organic agriculture, harvested by hand with the strictest rigor, very early in the morning using headlamps in order to bring in the grapes cold and thereby preserve their integrity.

Yield: 35HI/hectare.

Vintage: 2017, a hot and particularly dry year. After a slightly humid beginning of spring, temperatures drastically changed and not one drop of rain fell for the rest of the season. A summer heat wave followed. The vines had to draw down deeper into the subsoil. The water scarcity gave the vines the opportunity to explore the terroir to a maximum. A poor harvest with small grapes, but an irreproachable state of health and the aromas well preserved. An exceptional year to be noted in our history.

Vinification: Reception of the harvested grapes is made using a gravity-based structure and juice extraction is carried out using a delicate and progressive pressing.
Organic certified alcoholic fermentation.
Aged on fine lees in stainless steel vats for 4 months.
Bottled at the end of winter, fully respecting the lunar calendar and also preserving the maximum aromatic potential.

Alcohol level: 13%Vol.

Tasting: A delicate wine with a very pale pink robe. The vivid nose reveals its elegance with hints of exotic fruit and berries. On the palate, the aromatic richness expresses itself with delicacy, an overall balance of wonderful acidity which brings freshness, liveliness and structure to the wine. The finish is luscious and expressive. Ideal for light meals, salads, grilled meats, but also with provençal dishes. An ideal wine for a simple cocktail party with friends.
