

MASLAURIS
LUBERON

Les Terres de MasLauris Rosé 2018 AOP Luberon - Organic Wine

Grape varieties: 50% Cinsault, 25% Grenache, 15% Syrah, 10 % Mourvèdre.

Soil: Sandy loam and gravel

Climate: Land parcels situated at 300 meters altitude at the foot of the Luberon mountains. The microclimate allows the Maslauris grapevines to benefit from cool nights as well as beautiful, sunny days. The presence of the Mistral wind plays a key role in the irreproachable healthy state of our grapes. These different factors will provide grapes that will bring subtlety and freshness to the wine.

Grapevines: Young vines from certified organic agriculture, harvested by hand with the strictest rigor, very early in the morning using headlamps in order to bring in the grapes cold and thereby preserve their integrity.

Yield: 50Hl/hectare.

Vintage: 2018, a hot year, with a lot of water in spring. Thanks to the spring rains, we were able to restore the stock of water that the soil needs to grow nice grapes, especially after a very dry year in 2017. Summer was hot, especially in August. The weather was then amazing in September with sunny days followed by cool nights.

All these conditions helped the grapes growing in perfect conditions and achieving perfect maturity when being harvested.

Vinification: Reception of the harvested grapes is made using a gravity-based structure and juice extraction is carried out using a delicate and progressive pressing.

Organic certified alcoholic fermentation.

Aged on fine lees in stainless steel vats for 4 months.

Bottled at the end of winter, fully respecting the lunar calendar and also preserving the maximum aromatic potential.

Alcohol level: 13%Vol.

Tasting:

A delicate wine with a very pale pink robe. The vivid nose reveals its elegance with hints of exotic fruit and berries. On the palate, the aromatic richness expresses itself with delicacy, an overall balance of wonderful acidity which brings freshness, liveliness and structure to the wine. The finish is luscious and expressive. Ideal for light meals, salads, grilled meats, but also with provençal dishes. An ideal wine for a simple cocktail party with friends.
